Lucifer, now called Satan or the Devil, was once a glorious and beautiful creature of Heaven. Many Bible scholars believe that he once enjoyed an angelic rank, equal to or superior to Michael, the archangel. Then pride was conceived and found to be in him. Satan was no longer satisfied to serve the Lord God Eternal. He now coveted the power, the glory, and the Kingdom of God. Something happened to Satan. A clear understanding of exactly what happened can only be a matter of speculation. We do not know what caused such a beautiful creation of the Almighty God to become imperfect, perverted, and therefore, insane. We do know, according to God's word the Bible, that the insane, diabolical mind of Satan, (who was then Lucifer) became rebellious and an enemy to God.

We are told clearly that his insanity began with pride. His twisted and demented mind began to commit one sin after another by the abuse of his power. Satan had the power to create imperfection, not God; God did not do it, Satan did it. We next see him as the first to covet. The now imperfect creature began sewing discord throughout Heaven.

Most Bible scholars believe that he subverted and caused one-third of the angelic beings to rebel and engage in war against the Eternal. Thus, he was the first to make war. After a lengthy war, the duration of which we can not truly comprehend, Satan and his followers were thrust to this earth as disembodied spirits, all infected with the diabolical mentality of the insane mind of Satan, and there imprisoned in the atmosphere, and Satan became the ruler of this world. The boundary of his imprisonment would be the air or the atmosphere of the physical earth. Thus, he became the Prince and the Power of the Air. The fact that he was sentenced to earth shows that everything must exist somewhere spiritually or physically.

Material matter may be altered in form but it never ceases to exist. Only the Living God can cause the cessation of existence and that is why the Lake of Fire was prepared for the Devil and his messengers and all liars and all who help make a lie (Rev. 21:8). The same is true in the spiritual universe, regarding spiritual matter. According to the Apostle Paul, we may understand the spiritual universe better by seeing the realities of the physical or material universe. Scientists tell us that material matter that appears to us to be solid is in reality not solid at all. The wall in your home is actually billions of atoms and molecules suspended in space, moving or vibrating at a specific wave length or frequency. The truth is your physical body is composed and put together much the same way as the wall. In other words all material matter is in motion, suspended in space. Thus, things are not as they may seem.

When we understand the realities of our material universe and environment, it becomes easy for us to comprehend and understand that physical matter originated from and comes from spiritual matter. In plain language, the material matter of the material universe is in reality and in truth composed of spiritual matter. When we understand this clearly we know that the material universe is in truth an illusion. It is real to us because we are material and physical. The material universe is temporary and will ultimately return to spiritual matter. To clearly understand this, we must realize that God is a spirit. God literally spoke the material universe into existence through His voice, His Word, Who became Jesus. God wants us to understand that words are spiritual, because thoughts are spiritual. Jesus said, "The words which I speak to you are Mentality and are Life" (John 6:63 AST). You can not see a thought, concept or an idea, yet it is by thoughts and words that mankind actually changes his environment. When we understand that human beings are part material or physical, and part spiritual, then we begin to understand and realize how Satan operates in this material world.

Satan, or the Diabolical Mind, is a spiritual creature, just as are the angels of Heaven. Satan can not affect or cause change in the material universe, unless he has physical slaves to do it for him. When we realize this then we know that Satan must affect this material world in exactly the same way and by the same rules that God observes and has set in motion. God effects the material world through His Holy Spirit. The Bible calls this the operation of God manifest in the Christian Baptism of Fire. The Holy Spirit comes to us in spirit form, in thoughts, words, and ideas, and in this way, renews the mind and restores it to the perfection of the Word. The same thing is true of the Devil and the demons of the government of death.

In the final analysis, it is material, physical people who actually do either the Will of God or the will of Satan in this physical world, and contrary to popular Judeo religion, there is no middle ground (Matt. 6:24). Thus, we shall see why Satan believed it necessary to deceive and enslave the first Adamites of this planet in order to achieve his insane desire of stealing from God the power, the glory, and the government.

Upon his act of disloyalty and rebellion, Satan was no longer Lucifer; his name was eternally changed to Satan. He was now imperfect and in a degenerating estate of insanity. His followers and army (once the beautiful angelic creatures of Heaven) were now his slaves – no longer angels, now they would be called demons. No longer ruled by the love of God, their selfishness made them slaves to Satan and they became messengers of the evil, diabolical mind of Satan. Satan's insanity was now in a position to infect his insane will upon the inhabitants of the earth.

Thus, is it correct to say that Satan is insane, and if so, why? Any honest person may easily see that Satan is indeed the father of insanity. That which men disagree upon is the definition of just exactly what true sanity is. The Separatist principle, as set forth in God's Word, clearly teaches that sanity is believing, obeying and practicing God's truth in love. It is, in fact, to have the Mind of God abiding. This is a broad statement – so general that it leaves too much room for speculation. The real question we must ask is, What is the estate of being sane?

We are sane when we truly believe and obey all of God's Word the Bible by walking in the Spirit Mind of God, that is to say, when we are truly yielded to His precious Holy Spirit, in as much as the Word of God and the Holy Spirit communicate to us the same eternal truth of the Mind of Almighty God. God defines sanity and being sane when we worship the Creator Almighty God as He has prescribed in spirit and in truth; it is having the truth that sets us free from the illusions and lies of Satan (John 8:32). It is truth that resurrects men from their grave of death and saves them from the Second Death. For example, if we believe God is omniscient (all knowing), then we should not question if He loves us when He tells us not to drink wine to excess and be drunken. The question is not that God is out to spoil our fun, the question is whether we really believe God or not, whether we trust Him or not. To believe God is to trust God. God has given us His law which is His Word, so that we might have life and have it more abundantly. If we disobey and proceed to drink ourselves to death, we have no one to blame but ourselves.

To be disobedient is to be disloyal to the Word of God and thereby disloyal to the Eternal Himself. There is only one thing in the universe that God honors above His name or authority and that is His Holy Word. Thus, we are without excuse when God told us not to do it, that it was bad for us. His Word told us all the ramifications and unpleasant circumstances that will come to us if we choose the life of a drunkard. God even tells us by His precious Word that such a life will hasten physical death. In other words, God tells us the truth, and if we go against it, that is insanity.

Simply put, this teaches that all of God's Word is God's Law stated in spiritual precepts or principles. He has given His Word to us or His Law for our edification or education regarding life. God's Word tells us all we need to know about life and death. The Bible is a book written in the Heavenly language of truth that tells us all we may comprehend about life and death. Thus, we are forewarned regarding the consequences of sin or failure. By sin I mean Satan's system of insanity. We may understand this better by considering a common sense example: If I ask to borrow your car and you tell me that it has no brakes and that the gas pedal is apt to stick and I insist on taking the car for a drive at a hundred and twenty miles per hour to a certain twisted and mangled death, you would not only say that I was insane, you would probably use less polite words and say I was nuts or crazy.

So what is insanity? There is only one standard that we may answer this question by and that is God's Word the Bible. The true standard cannot be found among the earthly wisdom of men. The so-called "empirical science of psychology" would produce in a court of law any number of sworn testimonies to prove or disprove my action of crashing the car as sane or insane. Two psychiatrists from the same school of thought could be paid to testify while holding opposing points of view. Obviously we cannot trust the so-called "empirical science" of psychology to give a definition of exactly what sanity or insanity is. The truth is they do not know themselves. It is a clear case of the blind leading the blind. The Bible says both will fall in the ditch (Matt. 15:14).

Insanity, therefore, in the physical or spiritual dimensions of this universe is when we purposefully, knowingly, and willfully go against and act against truth. Lucifer knew that God was Eternal, that is, he knew the truth, but he became puffed up with himself, he swelled with pride. The very second that happened, he began to invent every wicked and unrighteous act or thought that exists today, which we call collectively, sin.

From the very beginning of man's recorded existence, man has been in rebellion to God. The story of man begins when we first see the serpent presenting the illusion of spiritual freedom to Eve in the garden of Eden. Satan knew the lie he had fabricated could bring about the downfall of the white race. The illusion was a simple one, to plant the idea in the minds of Adamics by perverting their imaginations (to a wrongful use). They were led to believe that it was possible for them to know more and have the knowledge of God. They were conned, although Adam was not deceived, into believing that it was not necessary to put God's Word first and foremost in their lives. Satan lied to the woman and told her that it was possible that if she and her husband would rebel against God, that they could become as gods, having knowledge of good and evil as gods. In other words, if they would exalt themselves above God by being disloyal to God's Word, they too would become as gods, by exalting the creature above the Creator (Rom. 1:25).

Whatever has the preeminence or absolute first place in our lives, whether it is a person, place or thing, it becomes the person or thing to which we give our loyalty, our devotion and worship. God has declared in His ten spiritual laws, the ten commandments which He gave the children of Israel, that His rightful place must be absolutely first place in our lives.

The spiritual laws of God are eternal. God does not change nor do His Laws. God has said "Thou shalt have no other gods besides me" (Ex. 20:3). To fail to do this is to be an idolater. To worship anything in this material universe, whether it is a person, place or thing, and give it the first place in our minds and hearts, that the Word of God declares belongs exclusively to God, is to be a materialistic idolater. The Bible tells us clearly that "God [is] a Mentality, and those worshipping Him must worship in Mentality and in truth" (John 4:24 AST).

Materialistic idolatry is not the only form of idolatry that breaks God's first law. Materialistic idolatry is defined in God's Word the Bible in total context as being the exaltation of the creature at the expense of the Creator. This simply is to lift up something physical or something of this material universe and give it God's rightful first place. Whenever we put something of the material world in God's place, we commit the sin of materialistic idolatry.

God's first law is far more reaching than merely to forbid idol worship, however. It also forbids spiritual idolatry. Spiritual idolatry always precedes materialistic idolatry. Men do not worship idols unless they have first committed spiritual idolatry. Thus, we understand why God must be worshipped in spirit and in truth. Far too many are seeking to worship God in spirit but not in truth. Whenever God's first spiritual law is broken it ultimately leads to materialistic idolatry. Satan knew that if he could pervert the eternal truth of God and cause mankind to break God's first spiritual law, he could help cause the fall of man.

Let us understand clearly that lies are only illusions. Truth is reality. Satan did not bother to tell Adam and Eve the full story. He implanted a lie and built an illusion based on half truths. As we shall see, half truths are dangerous. Half truths mislead and can make a lie. Satan is the father of all lies, and therefore the father of all mongrels, since mongrels are, as we shall see, the result of a lie and not the creation of Almighty God. In other words, Satan was the first to pervert truth and change the truth into a lie. He could not have subverted the angels of Heaven unless he learned to be a master of propaganda (deception and distortion). Thus, he became the master con artist of all ages. Satan was the first to pervert the language of Heaven, which is, and always will be, the Holy Language of Truth.

Far too many who profess to have been born into the Government of God and call themselves "Christians" have not learned to speak the Heavenly language of truth. When we are born into the Government of God we are born as babes. We must grow in the grace and knowledge of the Lord, and to fail to grow in God's favor is to backslide and become a spiritual abortion. We must go on to spiritual maturity. In that process we must learn to walk and to talk, to see and to eat, to drink and to rest. We must be taught all these things by the true Bible teacher, the Holy Spirit of Truth. Thus, real Christians speak the Language of Heaven which is truth. All liars and all who make lies are destined to the Lake of Fire. Thus, all of God's people understand that half truths and all lies are created in the insane mind of Satan.

Thus, in the Garden of Eden, Satan led the woman to believe that if she would exalt herself in her imagination, that she would gain total and complete omniscient knowledge. She would know all good and evil things; past, present and future. The knowledge that she would gain would be equal to Almighty God. What Satan cleverly forgot to tell her, or remind her of, was the fact that she and her husband were still in their physical bodies. The lie that Satan told and mixed with the truth was that they would become as gods. They would continue in their perfect estate. Satan covered up the distinction between physical and spiritual. He did not tell them that their material existence would only be temporary. As we shall see, Satan's objective was to get Adam and Eve's eyes and minds off of the eternal principles or laws of God and focus them upon the present material world. Thus, the Scripture declares "For the minding of the flesh is death, but the minding of the Mentality is life and peace" (Rom. 8:6 AST).

The difference in physical and spiritual was purposely set aside. Satan neglected this fact and therefore presented only half truths. This was a lie, a clever illusion. It was a perversion of reality. It did not take all the facts into consideration, but to Eve it made sense. At the time it seemed wise. We are told that Satan had presented himself as a authoritative figure in the talking serpent, which, as we shall see, was probably a metaphor for a mongrel false-prophet. Thus, he had focused the Adamites' attention on the present physical reality. His purpose was to get them "thinking in the now, living in the present" at the expense of the on-going spiritual truths. In other words, in the delusion of their mind, they could be as gods now, with no thought for the future or the spiritual consequences of their actions. To achieve that, they had to stop retaining true God-consciousness in their minds. This called for a decision of their self-will.

Satan's tactics have not changed. He still leads people to believe only half truths. He still twists and perverts the truth, to work his insane will on human beings. If we are to truly understand the account of the fall of man as recorded in Genesis, which according to God's Word was the beginning of the insanity on earth that we see in the world today, we must first clarify some popular myths about the creation account of Adam, some of the half-truths and lies that Satan would have us believe.

For various reasons, many groups of people have tried to make something out of the two creation accounts in Genesis that they are not. The record shows that the assault against the comprehensive Genesis account has always been led by Jews who have purposefully done all that they can to divert Aryan men from the true issues taught in the Book of Genesis. The Jews have followed in the example of their father by setting themselves up as religious authorities, and more often than not, they come to the white man pretending to agree with him, while injecting false information into the issues that later prove to be an embarrassment to the white man. When Separatist Christians call for the abandonment of the Masoretic Jewish text, we do so based upon scientific evidence, for we know that that is the only way that any white man is ever going to be an overcomer of the Jewish world order established in false religion.

The first account of the creation of man starts in Genesis 1:26; then, a second account starts in Genesis 2:7. Many people try to say that the two accounts represent the creation of two different racial types of people. Most say that the first account represents the creation of non-Whites and the second the creation of Whites. But in so doing, they give the non-Whites more standing than the Scriptures ever did and they also cause serious contradictions, and when the record is actually read, it becomes obvious that many such people have been duped by Jewish propaganda and have walked into intellectual traps long since set by Jews designed to destroy the power of the truth of the Word of God. So all white men should be wary when Jews come pretending to agree with them. If we look closer at the two accounts, we can see clearly that both accounts detail the creation of white men and white men alone.

The first account of Genesis 1:26 reads:

> "And God said, Let us make man according to our image and likeness, and let them have dominion . . ."

The two-accountists who say that this verse is in reference to non-Whites are basically saying that non-Whites were created in the image and likeness of God and that they are to have dominion over all the earth. Obviously, this verse has to be in reference to the creation of Whites. The second account of Genesis 2:7 (LXX)[1] reads:

> "And God formed the man of dust of the earth, and breathed upon his face the breath of life, and the man became a living soul. And God planted a garden eastward in Edem and placed there the man whom he had formed."

Again, this account has to be in reference to the creation of white, Adamic men. Furthermore, when we look at the Hebrew, we see that the word man in both creation accounts is the Hebrew 'âdam. 'Âdam means to show blood, flush, or turn rosy and is always used in reference to white people. Thus, this is an apparent contradiction if we are to believe the first

[1] Note on the Septuagint: LXX — This designation shows that the verse quoted is from the Septuagint, which is the Greek language version of the Old Testament Scriptures translated about 280 years before the Advent of Christ. The Septuagint (LXX) reflects the Scriptures as known before the corruptions made by the Pharisees and the Saducees (and later the school of the Masoretes), all of whom rejected Jesus as the Messiah (Anointed) and were largely infiltrated by peoples not at all related to the race of the Israelites, yet still made claim to be such (Rev. 2:9; 3:9). When the Bible student reads a New Testament quotation from the Old Testament, in most cases the New Testament author quoted directly from the Septuagint (LXX). The Greek Septuagint was the Scriptures used by the earliest Christians, whereas Hebrew (so-called) became the domain of those impostors who claimed to be Jews, yet proved themselves to be otherwise by their rejection of Jesus Christ (John 10:24-18). For more information on the Septuagint (LXX), please refer to our study on it.

account to be in reference to non-Whites. So why is there two accounts?

If we actually read the first two chapters of Genesis in total context instead of getting our theology from Jews, then the question as to why there are two accounts becomes easier to understand. Genesis 1:1-23 summarizes or gives a brief description of creation. It takes us from the first day down to the seventh day and provides a chronology of the events of creation. It serves as an overview or an introduction. Then in 2:4, we have what may be called the thesis sentence of the entire book,

> "This is the book of the generation of Heaven and earth, when they were made, in the day in which the Lord God made the Heaven and the earth."

This sentence includes everything upon the earth as well. Then the writer reiterates the events leading up to what he considers the focal point or centerpiece of creation, that is, the creation of man, of white man. We have already been told briefly of this creation, and this, again, only for the purpose of fitting it in with the other events of creation in a logical way. Now as we read on in 2:5-6, right before the second account, we see that it had not rained upon the earth, and the connotation in 2:6 where God "watered the whole face of the earth" is that the earth was still void of water. But if we look back to the summary of creation in the first chapter, we see that water was placed on the earth at least by the fourth day. So if there are two creation accounts, then there are also two accounts of the creation of water, and of herbs, and of grass, all of which are briefly mentioned again. But this is not the case.

Some also argue that the second account gives the creation of woman, Eve, while the first account does not. But again, this is not the case. The first account gives the creation of man and woman while the second account gives the creation of man and woman in greater detail. The second account does this by treating the creation of man and woman and their eventual fall on a singular basis. It is in fact an in-depth allegory to better explain the events of the first creation account which gives the creation of man in the plural sense. This becomes even more clear when we understand that Adam and Eve are not actually the names of people but mean Man, that is White Man, and Woman or First Woman. Some literal translations even translated the words in this way, never mentioning two specific people. The events in the second account represent the plight of an entire nation. Thus, when we look at the first account in Genesis 1:26-27, we read,

> "And God said, Let us make man according to our image and likeness, and let them (plural in reference to man) have dominion . . . And God made man, according to the image of God he made him, male and female, he made them."

Thus we see that man, the Hebrew 'Âdam, was created in the first account, and that this 'Âdam was in reference to both male and female as we see in verse 27. Then, in order to explain in greater detail and express the principle, the Writer reiterates the account of the creation of man a second time, and in the singular or individual sense. The singular man in the first account is actually pluralistic in connotation, much the same as mankind in modern Humanistic terms is in reference to all men and women. However, it needs to be noted, that any concept of mankind as used in Genesis would have been in reference only to Adamites or white-men because non-Whites were considered sub-Adamic. The Hebrew 'Âdam was merely being used in the collective sense in the first account in that it represented all Adamites. The modern term mankind through Humanist perversion is taken to mean all humanoids, including non-Whites. To the ancient Greek the quintessential true man was the white-man. He was therefore the measure of all anthropos (the Greek Septuagint translation for 'Âdam) or man. It is not until the time of Alexander the Great that the humanistic idea of mankind or the word anthropos is used of other races, and even then it carries the connotation of man-like, not mankind, conveying the idea that they were like men but not necessarily men. In the Genesis account, we will see that the existence of pre-Adamics was already a fore-drawn conclusion as indicated by the record and the language.

So in the first account, it speaks pluralistically of all white men. However, in the second account, the use of the definite particle τον (ton) signifies that the account is now being told in the singular sense. As we read the events that follow in the second account, and if we apply those events to a national scenario, in other words, not thinking of it in the sense of one man and one woman, but in the sense of the fate of an entire nation told in the personal sense of two people, then it becomes easier to understand the allegory being used. Keeping this in mind should help us analyze the fall of the first Adamites.

Man was once perfect in body and in mind. The concept of sanity carries with it the connotation of perfection. Because man once walked and talked with God in the perfection of the garden of Eden, this means that man was once perfect in his communication or communion with God. He spoke with God. He spoke the language of God. He thought the thoughts of God, he had the judgments of God. This raises an essential, all important question: what exactly happened to man that impaired and cut-off his direct communion and communication with the Lord God Eternal? We can answer this question by asking another question, Who was Cain's father?

Most Judeos will tell you that Cain was the son of Adam; yet, I John 3:12 reads, "not as Cain, who was of the evil one..." (AST). "The evil one" is in reference to verse 10 of the same chapter which reads "children of the Diabolical One." Thus, John is telling us that Cain is a child of the Devil. In John 8:44, Jesus says to the Jews whom he has been arguing with, "You are of your father the Diabolical One, and the lusts of your father you wish to do. That one was a murderer from the beginning, and he has not stood in the truth because there is no truth in him" (AST). Therefore, both the Jews of John 8 and Cain are children of the Devil. So, who was Cain's father?

When we look at Genesis 4:1-2 carefully, we find that Cain and Abel must have been twins. "And Adam knew Eve his wife (immediately after Eve's encounter with the Serpent), and she conceived and brought forth Cain, and said, I have gained a man through God, and she again bore his brother

Abel." While Eve said that she had gained a man through God, as we shall see the account shows that she was deceived and was lying to both herself and Adam. If you tell most Judeos that Cain's father was not Adam while Abel's was, they become infuriated at the thought. They say that it is scientifically impossible for them to have been twins yet have separate fathers. This proves nothing but the medical ignorance of the person who would make such a statement. So here are the medical facts that are easily ascertained from any medical book or encyclopedia: Identical twins are of one seed from a single man that fertilizes one ovum which then splits; fraternal or non-identical twins are always from two different seeds that fertilize two different eggs. These two different seeds are not necessarily always from the same father, and in fact it is a very common occurrence for the two seeds to be from two different fathers. The seed from one sexual contact simply lies dormant until after a second sexual contact, which can be, and often times is, another man, and conception takes place. Generally, the first seed enters one ovum and produces a child; however, the second seed may also enter another ovum, thus producing fraternal twins. Again, these are not freak occurrences in the medical community, but on the contrary, quite a common occurrence in the amoral society in which we live.

Even in ancient times, it was known that sperm could lie dormant for a certain period of time in the woman. In fact, if a man married a widow, and they had a child, that child was considered to be of the first husband. If it was a male child, then he inherited the estate and name of the first husband. Thus, if Adam was not Cain's father, then who was?

Obviously, this implies that Eve had sexual contact with the Serpent, but is there any proof of this?

First, let us look at Eve's own testimony from the Greek Septuagint, not the tainted Masoretic text. Genesis 3:14 reads, "And the Lord God said to the woman, Why hast thou done this? And the woman said, The serpent sexually seduced me and I did ingest." The words sexually seduced are translated for the Greek word ηπατησε (hepatese) which is defined by Bauer (p. 81) as "deceive, cheat, seduce sexually." And Liddell and Scott (p. 78) add: "beguile." Beguile carries the connotation of seduction. Thus, Eve has confessed to having been seduced sexually by the Serpent. This does not necessarily mean that she had sex with the serpent, but she did have sex with someone.

Again, before this verse, in Eve's discourse with the Serpent, she says in Genesis 3:4-LXX,

> "But the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God said, Ye shall not ingest of it, neither shall ye have sex with (απτεσθαι [haptesthai]) it, lest ye die."

We have translated απτεσθαι (haptesthai) as 'sexual intercourse.' It is defined by Liddell and Scott as: "to fasten, fix upon, engage with, to fasten one's self to, to touch, to have intercourse with a woman, to come up to reach, overtake." Bauer: "to touch, take hold of, someone, of intercourse with a woman, touching." Analytical Greek Lexicon: "to bring in contact, to have intercourse with, to know carnally." Thayer: "of carnal intercourse with a woman or cohabitation." The connotations of sexual intercourse cannot be ignored or denied. Due to the importance of this word and the fact that the Bible is actually self-defining in its usage of words, let us look at another example of its usage in the Septuagint.

> "But Abimelech had not had sex with (απτεσθαι [haptesthai]) her, and he said, Lord, thou wilt destroy an ignorantly sinning and just nation? Said he not to me, She is my sister, and said she not to me, He is my brother? With a pure heart and in the righteousness of my hands have I done this. And God said to him in sleep, Yea, I knew that thou didst this with a pure heart, and I spared thee, so that thou shouldest not sin against me, therefore I suffered thee not to have sex with (απτεσθαι [haptesthai]) her," (Gen. 20:4-6).

Again, after studying the full context of this passage, it is obvious that the issue was sex. This is made clear even in the King James Version. Thus, looking back at Genesis 3:4, we have yet another clear and explicit confession from Eve as to the nature of her crime. But someone will say, "she is speaking of trees." The word tree is translated from ξυλου (zulou) which was used metaphorically as a racial nation in Ezekiel, chapter 31. In that chapter, there is a long allegory which speaks of the Assyrian nation as a great Cypress tree and speaks of other peoples using the representation of a tree, and near the end of the allegory, it even speaks of the "trees of Eden." Thus, the tree is in reference to a racial people with whom the Adamites were forbidden to intermingle with. This is important to understanding who Eve had sex with that was forbidden.

After a cursory glance at Genesis 3 and 4, we see in 3:16 these words, "And I [God] will put enmity between thee [the serpent] and the woman and between thy seed and her seed, he shall watch against thy head and thou shalt watch against his heel." We know that Cain and Abel had enmity between them from the beginning, but even more important than this is the fact that the Serpent is said to have seed or descendants who will forever be opposed to the seed, posterity, or descendants of the woman or Eve.

Thus, the serpent represents Satan and the seed of the serpent or the seed of Satan is the mongrel seed created in the illicit sexual intercourse that Eve and later Adam took part in. When we look back at the tree allegory, and when we understand that the tree is in reference to a racial nation as is shown by Ezekiel 31, then we get a different picture. It should be noted as well that Paul, in Romans 11:24, refers to the Nations or the Ethnos as a wild olive tree, again showing the connection between racial nations and the metaphorical term of the tree. With this in mind, let us look at Genesis 3:4-LXX again,

> "But the fruit [offspring, members of a racial family] of the tree [race, racial family] which is in the midst of the garden, God said, Ye shall not ingest [taking in of their sperm or seed] of it, neither shall ye have sex with (απτεσθαι [haptesthai]) it, lest ye die [death in terms of racial death and spiritual death]."

Thus, the Adamic nation as exemplified by Adam and Eve were forbidden to procreate with a particular race of people, or pre-Adamics. This race of people were humanoid but were sub-Adamic. They were no doubt of the beasts of the field. They were nonwhite, and they were categorized as animals. The Serpent, who represents Satan, came along, presented himself as a religious authority, and implanted or impregnated an idea into Eve's mind. He seduced her in the mind and told her that it was all right to have sex with the beasts of the field in the midst of the Garden. She failed to retain true knowledge of the Word of God and yielded her self-will to the diabolical mentality of Satan. Jews even admit that Eve's crime was sexual. In the Talmud, Yebamoth 103a-103b, it says that the serpent "copulated" with Eve. But this is only half of the truth and is calculated to be misleading, for as we find in the Greek Septuagint, she did not have sex with a snake which merely represents Satan, she had sex with the agent of Satan, the beast of the field. Therefore, who are the beasts of the field?

The word beast, in both the Septuagint and the New Testament, is most often translated for the Greek word ζωον (zoon) which is defined by Liddell and Scott as, "a living being, animal." It is from the Greek word ζαω (zao) which means "to live, breathe." The word ζωον (zoon) is used of any living creature. This word corresponds to the Hebrew word chevyah which means a living creature and sometimes with the Hebrew words beir which means a brute beast and behema which is specifically in reference to cattle or a quadruped. In Genesis 3:1 (3:2-LXX), we read, "And the serpent was more subtle than any beast of the field which the Lord had made." In the Hebrew, the word beast is translated for chevyah which would imply that it should be read more subtle than any living thing, but in the Septuagint Greek, we see one of the few and one of the important times when chevyah was not translated zoon, instead, it was translated θηριον (therion), which is specifically in reference to wild animals or beasts. Liddell and Scott define the word as follows, "a wild animal, beast, such as are hunted, game, a beast, brute, a little animal." In other words, the serpent is not one of the zoon or the living things, that is, what is translated beasts of the field, but is rather a small animal, a snake. Eve did not have sex with a small animal, she was merely persuaded to have sex by a small animal, but who she had sex with was a zoon, a sub-Adamic living thing.

Now this is an important point because many, who have relied upon the corrupt Hebrew, have said that Eve had sex with the serpent. They have argued that the serpent was one of the beasts of the field or one of the zoon, but as we have just proven, that is not the case. They have further stated that it was not a serpent at all and that the Hebrew word nachash, which is translated serpent, does not really mean serpent but was in fact the name of the beast of the field who seduced and had sex with Eve. This is not true either. The Hebrew word nachash does indeed mean a serpent or a snake as Strong states. It is from another Hebrew word that means to hiss. Also, the Hebrew word nachash is used throughout the Old Testament in other places where it has to be in reference to serpents or snakes. But even more certain than this proof is the witness of the Septuagint: the Septuagint translators used the word οφις (ophis) for the Hebrew nachash which means, beyond a doubt, according to Liddell and Scott, "a serpent, snake." Thus, Eve did not have sex with a serpent, but the serpent did talk her into having sex with a zoon or a beast of the field. So it was the serpent who seduced her in her mind and that was the cause of her having sex with the beast of the field, to bring about a non-created being. So in the metaphorical sense, Satan is the father of all non-created, mongrel beings, and all mongrels are of the Seed of Satan, or what may be called the Serpentine race. What is important to remember is that Satan is not a physical being, but is a diabolical mentality, and that he is the father of mongrels in that he is the first cause. Satan therefore knew that the degenerate, non-created, mongreled races, would be incapable of housing the Spirit of God. Without Satan performing the mental seduction of Eve, it is unlikely that even she would have condescended to have had sex with the beasts of the field.

Now the word beast implies an unintelligent being, and while this is true when compared to Adamic standards, the zoon was a humanoid that was capable of speech and many other things that the nonwhite races are still capable of today. Remember, both the Greek zoon and the Hebrew chevyah simply mean a living, breathing thing.

It is obvious that whoever these beasts of the field are, it is biologically possible for a white person to procreate with them, and as Eve herself admits, it is forbidden by God. To make this even more clear, we need only read Leviticus 18:23:

> "Neither shalt thou lie with any beast for copulation, to be polluted with it, neither shall a woman present herself before any beast to have connection with it, for it is an abomination."

This command is given right after many verses of other prohibitions, prohibiting various sex crimes from homosexuality to incest. Notice that it says copulation. This is translated for the Greek word κοιτος (koitos) from which we get the English word coitus. The use of these words definitely implies the ability of successful fertilization. Therefore, the word of God identifies with precise scientific clarity who the beasts of the field were and are. They are non-Adamic humanoids capable of successful fertilization with Adamics. In Leviticus 20:15-16, the prohibitation that we just read is repeated, this time with the added clause that both the beast and the white person involved are to be immediately put to death. The reason for this is to prevent the production of offspring. Thus, conception is possible, and is forbidden. This clearly tells us that the term beast of the field, that is, the zoon of Genesis, is the sub-Adamic, nonwhite, humanoid races that have the capability of cross-breading with Whites. This, of course, is in reference to the Negroid, Asiatic, and other mongrel humanoid races.

Thus, Eve's crime was that of race-mixing and Cain was the mongrel offspring that resulted from that crime. So how did Satan achieve this deception with Eve? Satan approaches the woman with a question, he cleverly twists the meaning of what God had actually said. God did not say "ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden." God had forbidden the eating of one of the trees and one tree only, the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. In other words, God had forbidden the intermingling with one of the nations of people who were a mixture of good and evil. The implication is that mongrels already existed. Since they had evil in them, then regardless of how little an amount of evil it may have been, to touch or intermingle with them was forbidden.

So, Satan approaches the woman with a question, it was a propaganda question. It had enough truth in it to sound genuine but it was not the pure Word of God. It created the illusion that God had said none of the trees in the garden were to be eaten of. It carried a subtle accusation toward God, suggesting in the woman's mind that God was keeping many things from her. But Satan was clever, he formed it as a question. He came as the humble inquirer. Satan spoke in innuendoes. It sounded as though he did not know what God had said.

It put the woman on the defensive. She replies to Satan in verses 2 and 3:

> "And the woman said unto the serpent, we may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden: But the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God said, Ye shall not ingest of it, neither shall ye have sex with it, lest ye die."

Now let us notice that while the woman was doing the talking Adam was passively standing by in the sense that he was aware of what was happening but failed to act. Had Adam forgotten what God had said? Certainly not. First of all, Adam was perfect, he had a perfect body, a perfect memory. He was perfect in his soul and his soul was holy, in that he had daily communication with God. He therefore was able to speak and understand the Heavenly language of truth. For this reason Adam was without excuse. Plain old common sense will tell you that any man that could name and remember all the names of all the animals that God brought before him, certainly had perfect memory. Therefore, he knew what God had said. More than this Adam knew precisely what God really meant.

What was happening to Adam? Where was his loyalty to Almighty God? Why was he standing by so passively? Why didn't he speak up and set the record straight? Had not Adam walked and talked with God? Why was he allowing the inexperienced woman to do the talking?

Now in Genesis 3:4 (LXX-3:5) the serpent becomes bolder, "And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die." This was a direct contradiction to what God had said. Why did Adam not correct it? The serpent continues in verse 5: "For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil". Let us notice carefully that the serpent is lying in the spiritual sense. He is not lying in the physical sense. As we shall see, the Bible records that the very day the Adamites ate of the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil they died spiritual death. They died physical death only in the sense of killing their race. Therefore, we may clearly see that the Devil has confused the minds of the humans by mixing physical and spiritual. He has led them to believe that the physical truth somehow cancels the spiritual truth. He has conned Eve into thinking that the fruit is good, in other words, that since she is biologically capable of procreating with these other trees or races, then there must be nothing wrong with it.

In light of all this it is reasonable to assume that Adam and Eve could perceive a difference in spiritual and material. Let us also notice that Satan has carefully focused their attention on the present physical existence. The pair are now caught up in the false importance of their temporal physical existence. Satan is blinding them to the greater infinite spiritual truths. Now let us continue with the account.

Both the man and woman remain silent. Satan had captured their imaginations. They now were employing their imaginations out of the Will of God. They had now gone past the Word of God, in their minds. They were no longer retaining Godly knowledge. (To go past the Word of God, is to go past the known Will of God!). Eve's sin must be understood in terms of cause and effect. She gave Satan place by talking to the god of the dead instead of getting her information from the God of the living. Her actions were strictly forbidden throughout the Word of God (Levit. 19:31, Deut. 18:9-15; II Kings 21:2, 6; I Chron. 10:13; Isaiah 8:19-22, 19:3; Acts 16:16-18; I Co. 10:21, Jacob (James) 1:8).

Now let us analyze Satan's statement carefully: Satan opens his remarks with the oldest and most dangerous lie in his sinister bag of tricks. He boldly defies the Word of God and directly contradicts the Word of God, by saying "Ye shall not surely die." The Word of God says they would die. Satan tells them that they will not die. He doesn't stop there. He continues "For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, (He is now saying that God knows something and he is keeping it from them; he is now falsely speaking for God) then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil".

Notice carefully that Satan has assumed the position of being a spiritual authority, one who speaks for God or an enlightened one. He has come to the woman as an angel of light. II Corinthians 11:13-15:

> "For such are false-ambassadors, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into ambassadors of the Anointed.

> Did not Satan marvelously transform himself into a messenger of light? It is not a great thing then, if also his ministers transform themselves as ministers of justice, whose end will be according to their works" (AST).

Satan has conjured up an image in the imaginations of the man and woman and they see themselves as gods. They have put the creature above the Creator. Satan is pretending to be one who speaks of spiritual matters, for he says "then your eyes shall be opened". Adam and Eve knew their physical eyes were open so Satan is presenting himself as an authority on spiritual enlightenment, "and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil". Let us notice carefully that verse 5 is a statement of truth, and all that Satan said in verse 5 came to pass. It was the truth that Satan no doubt spoke with authority, but it was not all the truth. In all that Satan said he spoke only one black lie, "Ye shall not surely die". Five little words compose the biggest lie of history. Five words combine to help cause the fall of man. Five words from the tongue of one representing himself as being an authority on spiritual matters. Five words that the Bible shows to be Satan's favorite lie.

Now let us remember that Adam is with the woman and has remained silent. He is practicing religious tolerance. Continue in verse 6: "And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, [that she was capable of copulating with the racial tree] and that it was pleasant to the eyes [she was lustful after it], and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did ingest, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat".

Now let us notice carefully, that Satan has succeeded in getting the woman to think in physical terms of importance. She is interested in the physical gratification of the body. She has put the creature, the physical body and its needs and desires and her lusts, above the true worship of the Creator. Both the woman and her husband have now exalted themselves above the Lord God Eternal.

The wisdom that Satan has presented the woman is earthly wisdom. Let us understand that it is wisdom. After all, Satan stole it from God. The earthly wisdom that Satan is promoting does not take the Lord God Eternal into account. It is a momentary wisdom that gives no consideration to the ongoing spiritual realities of the universe, but rather teaches its captives to focus their attentions and energies on the present now reality, the present physical existence, to live for today without thought of tomorrow's posterity or the survival of the race, to refuse to look forward into eternity. Such a wisdom therefore is not a true wisdom when measured by the standard of God's Word. Nor is it a realistic wisdom because it fails to take into account or even admit that God exists. It is therefore perversion of true wisdom, because it fails to see reality. It therefore becomes a philosophy of Satan that he uses under many disguises or labels as a distraction to distract us from being prepared to meet our God.

Any philosophy that refuses to take into consideration the empirical fact that man's existence is temporal and will eventually come to an end is not based upon true wisdom. Nor by the standard of God's Word is such a philosophy realistic or sane. In reality it is insane for us not to admit our mortality and seek to deal with the fact.

The fruit will indeed make Eve wise, but what she and Adam have failed to take into consideration is that they will lose their Heavenly or spiritual wisdom. They are assuming that they will not lose what they have, but will continue to retain their Heavenly wisdom and ability to speak the Heavenly language of truth. Thus, the Scripture describes their action:

> "Because having known God, they did not repute Him as God, nor were they thankful, but became vain in their reasoning, and their undiscerning heart was darkened. Professing to be wise, they became foolish" (Rom. 1:21-22 AST).

Notice the Bible does not actually teach that they became wise, but rather that they professed themselves to be wise. In other words, they professed themselves to know more than the Lord God Eternal. They thought that God did not know what He was talking about when He forbade their intermingling with these other races. They found out that it was biologically possible, and therefore, God must be crazy to forbid them to do so.

We now see them display all of the symptoms of the hideous infection the Bible calls sin, as defined and described in I John 1:15, 16:

> "Do not love the world nor the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the honorable brotherly love of the Father is not in him, because all that which is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the bragging of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world" (AST).

Now let us also notice carefully what is happening. Adam has stood by passively and has not defended the Word of the Lord God Eternal. Both the man and the woman have been taken captive in their imaginations by Satan. Satan has contradicted God. He represented himself to be a spiritual authority. Both the man and the woman have made a decision of their personal will to go to the tree of good and evil. The Bible says, "and when the woman saw that it was good for food". Good for the lust of the physical body and that it was pleasant to the eye. Pleasing to the perverted sense of sight. It was desirable to the lustful vanity of one's self. It was appealing to self pride. Perhaps Eve thought that she would be a good humanitarian and be recognized for leading the way against racism.

The Bible says "she took of the fruit thereof, and did ingest and gave also unto her husband with her and he did ingest". So what was in it for Adam? He got a little beastess of the field. There was nothing noble or unselfish about what Adam did. It actually makes me sick at my stomach to hear Judeo preachers pervert the Genesis account by making Adam out to be some noble creature who fell from God's favor because he so loved a woman. He was a stinking coward. The connotation is that they participated in some sort of sex orgy; that they both had sex with sub-Adamics. The thoughts that had been conceived in their imaginations now came forth into physical actions (words are powerful, words are thoughts, that form concepts, all physical actions have their beginning in the form of thoughts; thoughts and ideas and words are spiritual). Thus, the Bible truth as set forth in the

New Testament becomes even clearer in Jacob 1:13-15:

> "Let no one being tempted say: "I am tempted from God." For God is not tempted by evils and He tempts no one. But each one is tempted by his own lusts, being drawn out and being seduced, then lust, having conceived, gives birth to failure, and failure being fully formed, brings forth death" (AST).

Now Adam had been with her all along. The implication is that Adam was somewhat reluctant. The woman gave to the man. Now we come to the moment in history, where Adam is faced with making a decision, either to enforce God's Law against this help mate, this woman that he had come to love, this silly child, or to choose to disobey God. This woman was bone of his bone and flesh of his flesh. He now had to choose between a portion of himself, of his own race, and enforcing and standing for the great Aryan Law of Almighty God. Jesus said that if your right hand offends you, cut it off, because it is better to enter to the Kingdom of God with out one hand or one eye than not at all. The Adamic race now had to face the issue of policing itself and surgically removing the offending part or forfeiting the right of dominion or rulership with Almighty God. Now there are a lot of Judeo preachers who like to praise Adam for sinning against God, and they enjoy telling the people that Adam fell because of his love for the woman, but that is not what the Bible teaches. In truth, that is feminine philosophy and it is evil. The Bible teaches that Adam fell, because he was a coward who refused to obey the Law of God. The Bible says that without the shedding of blood their is no remission of sin, that is the Law of God, that is the real issue. The issue is not whether Adam felt romance or compassion or whether he was an understanding husband.

You see, Adam could not claim a degenerated spiritual nature, because he was perfect. Adam's nature was created unique, because Adam was created with the capacity to literally house the very Spirit or Mind of the Living God in him bodily. Adam was set aside for that supreme purpose, to be indwelled with the Spirit Mind of God, that Adam might fulfill his true destiny to serve the Living God in this earth and to be God's instrument of rulership and to take dominion of God's Government and to rule the earth in righteousness. He understood God's Law in its totality. He understood the blessings or benefits, that is to say the cause and effect ramifications of enforcing God's Law. He had a true Aryan mind. But this Adam made a choice to succumb to the same insanity that the woman had fallen into. Now there are many ramifications to the story of the fall of Adam, and there is no virtue to be found in his cowardly act in forsaking the Law of the Living God. Adam did not fall for Romantic love, and if love had anything to do with it, then we are really talking about lust. If he fell for love then he fell because he loved his own selfish lusts and appetites more than he loved God.

The highest aspiration of Aryan man is not to love a woman, but to love the Living God. The Biblical definition of a real man is a godly man, a man with the honor of God. An Aryan man is not a man without honor. An Aryan man can only have godly honor when he is restored to communion with the Living God. God has not told the preachers to lower Aryan man to the aspirations of niggers and mongrels. Any healthy humanoid can father a child or have sexual prowess. That may well be the highest aspiration of bug-eyed, bubbled-lipped mongrels. That may well be all that they can comprehend with their limited capacity. But that is not the high moral calling of the Aryan man. We could just as easily say that he fell because of disbelief, because he refused to believe that the same God who had cloned a woman from his rib could make him another woman. Adam knew that her offense against God's Law was punishable by death. Adam also knew that in order to truly keep God's Law, one also has to enforce it. In other words, it is not enough just to recite God's Law or go around telling people that you are keeping it; truly keeping God's Law bears the responsibility of enforcing God's Law.

For example, the sixth commandment says, "You will not mongrelize" (LXX). The Bible also prescribes punishment for breaking that Law. Therefore, it is not enough for you to simply abstain from breaking God's Law of Divine Establishment, you also have the responsibility of enforcing that Law. Less than one hundred years ago, the nation of America understood God's Law. They had laws on the books prohibiting race-mixing, and the Ku Klux Klan policed their own communities as vigilantes and lynched rapers and degenerate race-mixers. These are facts of history. I am not telling anyone what to do, I am telling you what the Bible teaches.

As Christian Separatists, we know that it is impossible at this time in history for anyone to keep the letter of the law without hypocrisy, especially when you live in a non-Christian society. Now notice that I did not say that is was impossible to keep the spirit of the law, that is, the principles. Therefore, all who truly desire to walk pleasing unto the Living God and keep the Law of the Living God must walk in the Spirit of Christ, in the Spirit of Separation. There are many groups of sincere people who have been deceived into believing that they can, in this present hour, within their own strength and without the indwelling Spirit of Christ, keep the letter of the Law of God. This is a Jewish mentality. Men want to be religious, and even when they reject Christ and His Spirit of Truth, they do not want to admit that they are failures, and even though they have said no to the leadership of the Holy Spirit of Truth, they want to lie to themselves and have some false teacher tell them that they can still be pleasing unto the Living God.

Far too many want to substitute the carnal and social laws of Moses for the Law of the Spirit in Christ Jesus. But when we check the record, we see that the national laws of Moses could indeed regulate a society, but it could do nothing to treat the real cause of godlessness, that is, the mind and conscious of the individual believer. The social law of Moses could make men conform to the keeping of the sabbath; it could make them stop their labors, but it could not change their thoughts or attitudes. It did nothing to treat greed, envy, or lustful appetites, and it is self-evident that the administration of Moses ended in the failure of Israel to continue as a national, political entity. There was nothing wrong with the law of Moses; it was good and just because it was based upon the Spiritual Principles of the Everliving God. But it proved to be weak in the treatment of the inner-man, that is, thoughts and attitudes and beliefs. It treated the outside, but it did nothing for the inside, and that was its weakness.

Today, there are hundreds of different denominational groups who are claiming to be in obedience to the social laws of Moses, and when a man makes that claim in this day and time, he manifests himself as a Pharisitical hypocrite. Whenever you run into one of these religious zealots who claim that they can keep the law without the Living Christ, ask them to accompany you to any shopping mall or busy restaurant, and it will not be long before you will see a white woman accompanied by an ugly Negro, and they will have their fruit of the death of race-mixing with them, either carrying the little mongrels or the mongrels trailing behind. If you sit there long enough, you will see two faggots come gaily strolling by, holding hands and grabbing each other's behind. Now if your hypocritical law-keeping friend does not rise to his feet and enforce the Law of God, then and there, on the spot, execute the Judgment of God upon these perversions and deviations, then you will know that your friend has been lying to himself, and that his problem is that he refuses to bend the knee to Jesus Christ and admit that he needs a Savior in order to fulfill the Law of God in this present truth. The reality is that if you kept the letter of the law there at the mall or in the restaurant, the perverted society in which you live would send out a S.W.A.T. team and dispatch you on to Valhalla.

The S.W.A.T. team would be there in five minutes and a bunch of white boys would shoot you down and your flesh would die, and you would not be able to take care of your families and they would be at the mercy of a mongrelized government, and you would not be there to teach your children the Law of God in their generation. So the spirit is willing but the flesh is weak.

"For we know that the law is of the mentality, but I am fleshly, having been sold under failure. For what I work, I know not. For what I do not desire, this I do. But what I hate, this I do. But if what I do not desire, this I do, I agree with the law, that it is good. But now I no longer work it out, but the failure dwelling in me" (Romans 7:14-17 AST).

Do you see what Paul is really saying? It is not his flesh that is weak, it is the damned Roman S.W.A.T. team. It is the ignorant godless White Race that does not want to put God first in their life by acquiring the knowledge of truth as taught by the Spirit of Truth in the Baptism of Fire so that they might cooperate together and bring in the Anointed Nation. They do not want to obey the teachings of the Lord Jesus Christ – to walk in His expressed Government as revealed in the New Covenant. They want to clean up the outside of the cup while the inside remains full of filth and poison. And so they go off on religious trips, deviating from the teachings of Christ and they sew discord among white racial brethren with false religious teachings and they help the Joudikoi by bringing division within the Government of Christ. They walk in will-worship, religious, but lost to the Government of Christ. They are selfish, envious, jealous, and they cannot get along with the disciplined children of God who have sought first the Government of God and all of His right thinking; they are stiff-necked and they believe that what they think is more important than what the Bible says. They adopt any number of subjective philosophies in order to avoid the objective standard of the New Covenant and they end up in lawlessness and disillusionment. The majority end up becoming fools by saying in their heart, "There is no living God."

Now this does not necessarily mean that these types of people are bad people; many of them can see the enemies of God, that is not their problem. Their problem is that they cannot see the Government of God as laid down in the New Covenant. They need to be conceived and born by the Baptism of Fire. They need to get their priorities of life straight and stop playing religious games, because every day that they play religious games, thousands of their race are dying and God's Word calls for the unity of the White Race in the Government of the Living Christ.

Many who claim to have the racial consciousness of Christ and knowledge of the Laws of God written on their hearts want to do so without loving their Older Brother, the Lord Jesus Christ. But the fact is, that no one can love his racial brother unless he loves his Older Brother. By that, I mean, you can always find fault with Pastor Herrell, but you will never find any fault with our Older Brother, the Lord Jesus Christ. God Almighty made Jesus the Christ the standard and measure of true brotherhood, and the bond of maturity and completeness in the Scripture is the binding of Brotherhood. The truth is, those who are not dedicated to the principles of Positive Christianity as laid down in the New Covenant are not really dedicated to the proposition of raising from spiritual death the Anointed Nation. They are not really interested in achieving victory over the enemies of God by building a consensus throughout the White Race. They are only interested in playing moronic and silly religious games to soothe their disobedient conscious. They are not really interested or desirous of living in a godly society where they could keep the letter of the law, because it is a self-evident fact that such a society has yet to be built, and such a society will only come to pass as we follow God's plan and pattern for victory in the leadership of our God-Appointed Leader, Savior and King, Jesus Anointed. Only the Spirit of Fire can cleanse the mind and heart and make a man a pleasing vessel unto the bringing in of the Government of God.

Talmudic Jews under the auspices of Judeo preachers have purposely hidden what God's Law really says. I have made this clear in my book, Hidden Truth, which has now been combined with Forbidden Truth into a new book, The Truth Unveiled, and far too many people, even some claiming to be Identity, do not make it clear to God's people that to keep God's Law also requires the responsibility of enforcing God's Law. In other words, a man who does not race-mix or practice perversions himself, but who refuses to enforce that Law of God in his family or society, is just as guilty as if he where a race-mixer or pervert himself. People do not like the truth. They like to play religious games and pat each other on the back and talk about how holy they are, because they are deceived into thinking that they keep the Mosaic dietary Laws, or because they are stupid enough to be conned into keeping the Jewish sabbath and denying the Lord of Sabbion. Men go to great lengths to avoid keeping the laws of Jesus Christ as laid down in the New Covenant and to set up phony standards and definitions of what constitutes a real Christian. But the truth is, no one can come to God the Father except through the Master, Jesus Anointed. I want you to know that people do have the right under the law of liberty to live as they choose, but they do not have the right to create confusion and sew discord among brethren by misrepresenting what the Word of God really says or denying the Finished Work of Jesus Christ or the Final Revelation of Jesus Christ by erecting phony religious dogmas that blatantly contradict the teachings of Jesus Christ and aid and abet the Jewish antichrists.

The Bible calls such phony, philosophical Christians, Joudikoi, which corresponds to modern Judeoism. It does not matter how the antichrists and those who have said 'no' to God's Spirit of Truth deviate from the true teachings of Christ. The so-called fundamentalist Christians teach Jewish doctrines while wrapping themselves in sheep's clothing. They pervert the doctrine of salvation and thereby lower the standards of the teachings of Christ and go about to establish the old Nicolaitanian doctrine of lawlessness. It does not matter whether you call yourself a fundamentalist or take any other label, if your doctrine results in disagreement with the teachings of Christ, to teach people that they can be Christians without keeping the Laws of Christ, because when they do that, they have joined the sin of Judeoism and of the antichrist Jews and they have become spiritual cowards just like the first Adam.

Now let us take special note of the fact that Eve was deceived, but Adam was not. The reason Adam fell was because he was a coward. He refused to pay the blood debt of honor for his betrayal to the Living God. He refused to sever from the Adamic body that portion of the body that became infected and diseased and sinned against God. He adopted a mongrel-mentality, a lesser standard of principle, and he refused to enforce the Law of God that he knew constituted the Divine Law of Establishment and Order.

Now the principle of separation in surgery is a principle that all modern medicine was built upon, because it is Aryan thinking. There are no advancements in medicine among the witch doctors. Only an Aryan mind invented and perfected the art of medicine, because there still lingered in the Aryan mind the idea of the segregation and annihilation of evil. Do not be deceived, the Divine Laws of God are fixed in nature. Paul said that a little leaven leaventh the whole lump. He was talking about race-mixing. But Adam was a coward, and he refused to enforce the divine mandates of Almighty God's Establishment and Order, and when he made that decision, because the Spirit Mind of Almighty God is so Holy that it can have no contact with evil, then in that moment, that is in the moment of a twinkling of an eye, a split second after Adam made the decision of his free volition to go against the Spirit of the Living God, the Mind of God, the Spirit of God departed from him, and he was no longer the man that he once was. He no longer had bodily indwelling in him the Mind of God. He was no longer Holy or separated from evil. He had lost his perfect nature, and here is the real point: It is from perfection or completeness that Adamic man fell, and it is to perfection or completeness in the Mind of Christ Jesus that Adamic man is called to return. The Spirit of God could not stay in this Adam, because this Adam had become His enemy. Because this Adam refused to pay the blood debt of honor to a just and righteous God. That is the real message in God's Word, that Adamic men in their fallen nature are without God, they are dead, carnal, they do not have life, it does not matter how white they may be, without God, without the indwelling Spirit of God, they are the Living Dead. They are in the same condition as the Living Dead. "But the one living in self-pleasure has died while living" (I Tim. 5:6 AST).

But God Almighty had chosen the Adamic race as His portion of the Earth to be His vessels whom He would dwell in, and God understood this phony compassion that Adam had adopted, that it was nothing but a rationalization to cover up his failure to obey God. He understood the forces of evil and how they would be defeated. God knew all of this in the very beginning, and so God placed in the loins of Adam, in the racial stream of his Adamic seed, the Anointed One, the promised Christ, the One Who at the appointed time would come and pay the blood debt of honor owed to a Just God. The physical body of Jesus Christ was in the loins of Adam or the Adamites from the foundation of the world. And so we come to two great truths. First, that the Adamic man who has not bent the knee to his Older Brother, the Lord Jesus Christ and received the Holy Spirit of Truth, is dead, spiritually dead, and alienated from Almighty God. It does not matter what they may call themselves, it does not matter how patriotic they may confess to be toward the White Race, if they do not love their Older Brother, they do not have true racial brotherly love. The Scripture asks the question, If you do not love your brother whom you have seen, how can you love God who you have not seen (I Jn. 4:20)? If they have not received back within them the indwelling Separating Spirit of Almighty God, they are dead. That is the general condition of the Adamic man in this day and time. They are dead men in need of an individual and national resurrection.

But God loved the Adamic man, and God made a covenant with the Adamic man Abraham, and God promised Aryan men throughout the ages and in all manifestations of Aryan religion that He would, one day, send the Christ, the perfect man, the Second Adam, Who would pay the blood debt of honor, and restore the Adamic man to the favor of a Just and Loving God, that is, restore Adamic man's birthright in God Almighty. The New Covenant of Jesus Christ tells us exactly how God did this in the man Christ Jesus. The Bible says that at the appointed time, Christ came into this world, He lived a perfect and sinless life, He was an Aryan man, just like you and I, of the same bone and of the same flesh, and in Him dwelled the fullness of the Mentality of God. But with one great difference, though He was tempted in all points like us, He never sinned. This God man Jesus Christ was the Only-Begotten God (John 1:18 AST) and the first begotten son of the Living God. He came to be the Captain of Aryan man's salvation. He came to lead Adamic men back to favor with Almighty God. He came to establish the Government of the Living God on Earth.

Therefore, the Bible says that all authority under Heaven and Earth is given to the man Christ Jesus. One of the most important points to understand in the Word of God is that Jesus Christ came to be our example. There are a lot of people running around today who are talking like a bunch of Jews, claiming that they have no sin, that they keep the law, and therefore they do not need a Savior. But anyone who says that they keep the law show their ignorance of the law, and nine times out of ten, they are getting their doctrine from Jews. The Word of God says "If we say that we have not failed, we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us" (I Jn. 1:10 AST). Someone may say that they are the exception, and I would say, "for all failed and come short of the reputation of God" (Rom. 3:23 AST), in fact, our major problem as a race is that all have gone in their own way, they refuse to unify upon the teachings of Positive Christianity of the New Covenant, they refuse to walk in honorable, racial, brotherly love in the Government of Christ. Now that is just as true today as it was in Jesus's time. Yet, the Word of God says that Jesus lived a sinless life. How is this possible? How could Christ please God when no one else could? It is very simple, He had the Mind of God bodily indwelling Him, He was Emmanuel, God with us, God in the flesh. You see, only God could know how to please God.

In my own strength, I am not smart enough to know how to please God, nor are you. There are a lot of things that seem right to me that are not right to God. The Bible says that there is a way that seems right to men, but that the end thereof is death. But Christ was born bodily indwelled with the Mind of God. He was the second perfect man to walk upon the face of this Earth, and when His inevitable time of testing came, He did not flinch, He did not abandon the Living God. He did not become a turn coat and a traitor. He was obedient unto death. And because Christ Jesus paid the blood debt of honor due to a Righteous God, the right of dominion and rulership became His, and the good news is, that if we are Christ's, members of His Royal Family, the Body of Christ, then we are heirs and joint-heirs with Christ, and the right of rulership and Government to rule in the world is ours. The dominion that the first Adam lost was reclaimed by the promised Anointed One, and you too can reclaim the life of the Spirit that was lost, and you too can become a joint ruler in the Government of God with Christ Jesus by exercising the authority of Christ.

We have a lot of people who like to talk about the importance of the Adamic race coming to understand that they are the Sons of the Living God, and it is important that Adamic men understand that they were created or formed as God's portion of the earth, to be His vessels, but that my friends, that is only half of the Gospel. It is also just as important to understand to whom God has given the authority of dominion and how it is God's Will that you take your birthright of authority through Christ Jesus. And the only way that you are going to do that is to get into God's Word and find out what it really says, that is, to start walking in the reality of the Word of God, not the watered down versions of that reality presented by way-ward preachers and snakes and pimps in the pulpits, and one of the things that the reality of the Word of God does is tell white men who their enemies are, because if we are in covenant to the Living God, then God's enemies are our enemies.

So let us look back for a moment and get clear in our minds where the uncreated enemies of God came from. Satan's whole goal was to create for himself a physical agent on this earth to do his works, and the only means he had of doing this was corruption and deception. Just as God had said, enmity was put between the seed of the serpent and the seed of the woman. We see this carry over to the New Testament. I John 3:10 confirms the existence of the two seeds with these words, "By this are the children of God and the children of the Diabolical One revealed: Everyone not doing justice is not of God; also, he not loving his brother" (AST). In John 8:22-23, Jesus, while talking to a group of mongrel Jews, says, "You are from below; I am from above" (AST). Below is in reference to hell which is proven in Isaiah 14:9 which says "hell from beneath," and is allegorical of the grave of death, the Kingdom of Darkness and Hell. Jesus was in effect saying that He was a child of God, while the Jews were children of the Devil. This is confirmed in Matthew 23:15 where Jesus is again speaking to a group of Jews and says, "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you go about the sea and the dry land to make one proselyte, and when he becomes, you make him a son of Gehenna twofold more than you" (AST). These verses declare that the Jews of the New Testament are in fact the descendants of Cain and therefore of the Seed of the Serpent. Later in the same chapter in Matthew, verse 32-33, Jesus confirms this when He says, "And you fill up the measure of your fathers. Snakes! Race of vipers! How do you escape from the judgments of Gehenna?" (AST).

Intermarriage with the Canaanites or the Seed of the Serpent was forbidden in Deuteronomy 7:1-2. In verse 1, God lists the seven Canaanite nations, and then in verse 2, gives this command concerning them:

> "And when the Lord thy God shall deliver them before thee, thou shalt smite them, and utterly destroy them; thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor shew mercy unto them; thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shall thou take unto thy son."

This verse could not be more clear. So are the modern Jews really descended from Canaan and therefore of the Seed of the Serpent or Satan? The Jews themselves seem to think so. Looking at the Jewish Talmud, Q Pesachim F 133b, we read, "Five things has Canaan recommended to his sons: when you go to war do not go as the first; but as the last so that you may return at the first; love each other; love the robbery; hate your masters; and never tell the truth." The Sons of Canaan in this Talmudic passage is in reference to the Jews. The Jews claim to be the chosen race of God, but if we look back at Deuteronomy 7 where we just read the prohibition concerning intermingling between the white Hebrews and the Canaanite Jews, we find the reason for this prohibition down in verse 6 which reads,

"For thou are an holy people unto the Lord thy God; the Lord hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth."

He was speaking to the white Hebrews, not to the Canaanite Jews. Looking back to John, chapter 8 again, we read the words of Jesus as He was speaking to the Jews in verse 42, where He says,

"If God were your Father, you would love Me, for I went forth and have come from God. For I have not come from Myself, but that One sent Me" (AST).

Then, in verse 44, we read what must be the last nail in the coffin. Again, Jesus speaking to the Jews, He says,

"You are of your father the Diablical One, and the lusts of your father you wish to do (in reference to Cain killing Abel] That one was a murderer from the beginning, and he has not stood in the truth because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own, because he is a liar, and the father of it" (AST).

Thus, the two most important passages in our discussion are "Cain was of the evil one," and "You [the Jews] are of your father the Diabolical One." Again, we look to the words of Jesus as recorded in John 6:70, which reads, "Did I not choose you, the Twelve [the apostles]? Yet one of you is a diabolical one" (AST). Before we read on, we must mention that all of the twelve apostles were white Galileans. Judas Iscariot, while also white, had a mongreled mentality. So who was Jesus calling a devil? We further read, "But He spoke of Judas of Simon Iscariot, for this one was about to betray him, being one of the Twelve" (AST). John 13:10-11 reads,

"Jesus said to him, 'He having been bathed has no need then to wash the feet, but it completely pure. And you are pure, but not all.' For He knew he betraying Him. For this reason He said, 'You are not all pure" (AST).

This passage is also in reference to Judas Iscariot and clearly indicates that he was a mongrel Jew, a living, breathing, devil, in his mentality. Again, we read in Acts 13:6-10,

"And passing through the island as far as Paphos, they found a certain conjurer, a false prophet, a Judean whose name was Barjesus, who was with the proconsul Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man. This one, having called Barnabas and Saul, sought to hear the Word of God. But Elymas, the conjurer (for so his name was translated), withstood them, seeking to turn the proconsul away from the persuasion. But Saul, who also is Paul, being filled with the Mentality of Separation, and looking intently at them, said, "O son of the Diabolical One, full of all deceit and of all cunning, enemy of all justice, will you not stop perverting the right ways of the Master?" (AST).

Again, Paul has called a Jew "son of the diabolical one." So it comes down to this: Anyone who will take the Word of God as their reality of truth must conclude that Cain's father was the Devil in the sense that Satan helped to cause Eve to copulate with a beast of the field. Cain, therefore, was a mongrel, and after he had murdered Abel, God cursed Cain and sent him out from Eden or Edem. We are told that he went into the land of Nod where he intermingled with the beasts of the field who were created as animals on the fifth day of creation. Thus, the humanoids that are referred to as pre-Adamics were animals. There were no pre-Adamic-Adamics and what is referred to as the Seed of Cain are mongrels and are non-created beings in as much as God did not create them, they came about through lawlessness and they are, quite literally, incapable of true Aryan thought and they are manifest in their predisposition toward corruption because they are a product of corruption.

Within the White Wing movement, there are a number of people who teach the standard Judeo teaching of one seed-line and they claim to be Identity Christians, but the Bible shows that they are liars. Those who deny the Canaanite seedline of mongrels or the seedline of Satan deny the explicit teachings of the Word of God. It has been my experience in reading the literature of such people, that in many cases, they are Jewish infiltrators who are either Jewish themselves or have Jewish wives telling them what to say. In the rest of the cases they have been deceived by Jewish infiltrators. When their teachings and literature is compared with what the Word of God actually says, the reader is immediately disillusioned with the truths of Identity. So the only purpose that the single-seedliners serve is the Jewish purpose of discrediting the potent truth of true Christianity.

I want to conclude with the Separatist call to all true white men to return to the original autographs of the Greek, both of the Old Testament and the New, and stop aiding and abetting the Jews who keep setting themselves up as religious authorities. We do not need the Jews and their vain speculations that lead to disillusionment to help us prove anything. We have the pure Word of God in the original Greek in the Septuagint and in the Greek New Testament. In this discourse on Genesis, I have shown any reasonable white man who is not tainted in mongrel blood that the Bible says what it means and means what it says and if men truly want to resurrect the Anointed Aryan nation of Almighty God and fulfill their destiny, then they will give their love and devotion to their Older racial Brother and make the Word of God their only reality of truth, and those who will not, I say, Let them be accursed, let their flesh be turned over to Satan for swift destruction.

Let us pray . . .
